Keeping Up the Gold Reserve. WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 .- A telegram was received at the Treasury Department from Assistant United States Treasurer Jordan. at New York, stating that $906,000 in gold had been withdrawn for export to Europe. This was followed in a few minutes by another, stating that the Morgan syndicate had deposited in gold in exchange for legal tenders $1,346,000, which leaves the gold reserve at the close of the day's business $101,833,715. The syndicate's action is taken here as conclusive evidence that it proposes to keep the reserve above the $100,000,000 nt, according to the spirit of its contract with the govern

Weather Bureau Service Changes. WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.-Important changes in the Weather Bureau service hout the United States were ordered to-day. They include several removals of observers, a suspension and a dozen or more transfers between various stations. The removed observers with those transterred from other stations to succeed them are as follows: New Orleans, W. B. Blithe, succeeded by H. B. Dick, from the Memphis station; Duluth, Minn., Charles Buzzell, succeeded by L. C. Cover, from Milwaukee; Erie, Pa., William S. Deyo, vacancy not filled. Observer C. H. Stuller, f the Baker City, Ore., station, was orred suspended pending an investigation charges of citizens who allege partisanip and unsatisfactory conduct of the mee. Stuller is president of the town council. The policy of the bureau as out-lined to-day is to exact exclusive service from its employes. It is officially stated that hereafter all observers must represent the bureau solely and prompt action will be taken in cases of violation of this rule. The dismissals were ordered on grounds of unsatisfactory work.

The Outrage at Tarsus. WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 .- The memorial of the trustees of St. Paul's Institution, at Tarsus, Turkey, was received at the Department of State to-day. Some surprise was expressed by the officials of the departmen that such action should be taken by the trustees, in view of the fact that on receipt of the telegram of Mr. Christie, on Saturday, Mr. Terrill was cabled, and re-plied that he had called already on the Turkish government, and that a promise of an investigation and protection had been re-ceived. There had also been published the fact that Admiral Kirkland had cabled that the Marblehead would proceed to the Mediterranean. Acting Secretary Adee says that the department was gratified to find that Minister Terrell had taken action even before the department had been requested to move in the matter.

INJUNCTION REFUSED

MINORITY STOCKHOLDERS OF THE WHISKY TRUST DEFEATED.

Decision by Justice O'Brien That Permits the Reorganizers to Purchase Plants of the Company.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 .- Justice O'Brien in the Supreme Court chambers, this morning handed down a decision denying the motion for an injunction to restrain the reorganization committee of the Distilling and Cattle-feeding Company from purchasing or acquiring the property of the trust, which was advertised to be sold tomorrow. The motion for an injunction was brought by Frederick W. Anness and George N. Pynchon, who represent $15,000 worth of the stock in the trust. They contended that the purchase by the reorcanization committee would perpetuate the trust, which was declared an illegal monopoly by the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois. In his decision Judge O'Brien

"It is claimed that the reoganization is invalid because it involves: First, the per-petuation of the monopoly of the Distill-ing and Cattle-feeding Company, which had been adjudged contrary to public pol icy; second, the unlawful use of $45,000,000 of stock on the basis of property which is not worth to exceed $10,000,000; third, the unlawful use of $7,000,000 of preferred stock, and fourth, the creation of an illegal trust If the agreement was susceptible of but one construction and that the one given to it by the plaintiffs, then they would be forced in the contention that the plan roposed is illegal. It must be remembered, owever, that the agreement does not bind committee to any fixed plan, but a wide discretion is given to do what, in their judgment, they deem for the best in-terests of the stockholders, and their powers are limited only in particulars unnec-essary to mention and which do not affect the question of legality. It cannot be assumed in advance of the action of the mittee that they will proceed unlawfully. The effect of an injunction at the present time would be to prevent the purchase by the committee of property for which, by permission of the United States Circuit Court, they have been allowed to bid. Whatever other objectionable features there may be in the plan this right conferred on the committee to purchase and which has been sanctioned by the United States Court, is unobjectionable. It is, moreover, important to the stockholders that the property should not be sacrificed and if, after purchasing, the committee should attempt to reorganize the former monopoly the courts will not hesitate to again in tervene and prevent it. "There are unquestionably features in the agreement which look like an investigation of the committee with power to rehabilitate the old company. It is true that they are not to purchase all the properties, but it is evident that they are purchase all the largest and best dis-eries. This of itself is objectionable in the new company or companies to formed should avoid the methods of the stifling competition and creating a monop oly. The questions relating to the issue of the preferred stock and the common stock for such a large amount are of doubtful legality. Those questions, how-ever, should not be determined on a mo-tion, but should be reserved for that deliberation and consideration which is to be had upon a trial.

"A court of equity should never, in doubtful case, grant an injunction, especially where it would work irreparable injury. If the committee was prevented from carrying out its bid and securing the erties it would entail serious loss on all. After they have secured the proper-ties should they attempt to make an illegal use of them the courts would af-ford relief. Apart, however, from the legalor illegality of the organization agree nent the question presents itself whether or not the plaintiffs have not the right to withdraw. Whether the agreement con-ferred on the committee anything not con-ferred on the depositing stockholders is a question. If it conferred such a power then undoubtedly such power ceased as to plaintiffs on their demanding the return of their money and securities. The agree-ment of one to deposit stock is no doubt a consideration to uphold the deposit by another stockholder and, of course, where the committee has acted or become obigated to that extent depositing stocknolders are bound. Here a bid has been which it is claimed constituted a contract between the committee and the United States Circuit Court. "Whether it is, strictly speaking tract or not, it is an engagement into which the committee entered on the strength of laintiffs, as well as the other stock held v them and there is a doubt as to whether or not the United States Court would compel the committee to comple it. It would be placing the committee a hazardous position and might bring about a clash of jurisdiction for this court enjoin the committee from purchasing. has been shown that the committee solvent and responsible, having more than a million dollars on hand, and therefore position to respond to any damage laintiffs may suffer. If, against their protest, the committee proceeds the plaintiffs, if successful, would be entitled to a return of the stock or its value, tomittee is at present able to respond to such a judgment and it cannot be assumed that they will run the risk of persona liability by a failure to retain until the termination of this suit a sufficient amount to cover the plaintiffs' claim. "Motion for a preliminary injunction is accordingly denied with costs, to abide

To Be Sold To-Day. BAY VIEW, Mich., Aug. 13 .- Judge Woods this afternoon refused to grant an appeal in the Whisky Trust case, and so Gen. John McNulta, receiver of the trust, will stand on the postoffice steps in Chicago to-morrow and dispose at public sale of seventeen distilleries and the company's office building at Peoria. The upset bid price is $9,800,000 for the lot, and the reorganization committee will be the purchaser at that figure.

Two days of exhaustive argument had been listened to by Judge Woods. The attorneys for Greenhut and Morris fought every inch of ground, and used Olmstead's holdings of stock as the last vantage ground from which to possibly block the forth-coming sale. At several points in his verbal decision, which was lengthy, Judge Woods admitted that on some points raised by Olmstead's counsel he had wavered. But on the subject matter of propriety of granting an appeal on the showing made Judge Woods came out fully as strongly as both Judges Showalter and Seaman had done on similar petitions. Judge Woods held that Olmstead was not entitled to an appeal on any of the grounds raised, and overruled the petition.

The attorneys received telegrams from New York an hour or two before Judge Woods's decision was rendered to the effect that the application for an injunction against the reorganization committee purchase of the property had been refused by Judge O'Brien. Edwin Walker made the closing argument for the Greenhut-Morris interests. out his masterly plea did not move Judge Woods. He made his verbal decision when Mr. Walker sat down, without notes or the quotation of authorities. Judge Woods talked for half an hour, giving a resume of the facts in the case and his reasons for refusing to grant the appeal. Then there was a rush for trains, boats and telegraph

Wealthy Woman Dead. CHICAGO. Aug. 13.—The remains of Senora Maria de Burton, widow of the late Grig. Gen. Henry S. Burton, were embalmed and forwarded to San Diego, Cal, this afternoon. The funeral will b seld at San Diego. Senora De Burton died of gastric fever yesterday at the Sherman House, where she had been staying for the last six months. Her mission in Chicago was to sell her large tracts of land in Lower California known as the "Ensada of the heart three months after taking out the policy. The lodge bases its refusal to make payment on the claim that Peck must have had the disorder from which he died at the time of his examination for with a New York firm. The land may now be sold by her son.

THE RACES YESTERDAY WERE SUR-PRISING FOR THE TALENT.

Rensselaer Wilkes, Sir Edwin Arnold and Pat L. Won the Three Events-The Touts.

The first day's programme of the Driving Club's races was given yesterday under most favorable conditions. The weather was perfect and the track was fast. The crowd was not large, but it was good for the first day. All persons in attendance were keen as to the results and there was no indication of a lack of interest. The betting was lively, and more spirited than is generally seen in this city. As had been predicted, it was a day of surprises. The favorites in two of the races were beaten by unexpected horses, which made the bookkeepers happy. The time made in the different races was fast, not so fast as had been expected, but each heat was warmly con-

When Starter Loper sounded the gong for the 2:19 trot about eight hundred people were present but the number increased in a short time. Mr. Loper has a pleasing way of bringing the horses to the wire and in the first race, as in all others, there was little delay in getting off. The new starter has a voice that can be heard at the threequarter pole, and he sends his orders to the drivers by voice up the track. The betting booths were surrounded by a large crowd all during the afternoon. One very interesting sight was observed in one section of the grand stand. There sat twenty or thirty men, some white, many colored and all having a "horsey" look. They were put there by the police, and the row which they occupied was known as "touts' section." The police endeavored to stop touting and whenever a man or boy was seen going around the crowd, giving tips and pouring confidence into the ears of the unsuspecting public, he was led away and told to take a seat in "tout section," or leave the ground. Only one loss was credited to the touts. A young man with a hungry look after horse information, was standing watching the betting board. A tout approached and asked to peep at his score card. The young man handed it to him and about the same time another "horsey" ooking man came along with the information that he had just seen a driver give another man $300 to put on a "dark horse." That was enough for the young man with a hungry look after horse information and he asked a question or two. The result was that the tout took $5 from the young man with a hungry look after horse informa-tion, and neither the five nor the tout has een seen since. Officers of the associat innounce that touting is a thing which has got to be stopped and if a patron loses on a race it shall be upon his own judgment, or that of a friend, and not upon that of an

The favorites fared badly. In the 2:19 rot Jimmie Hague came proudly under he wire at the scoring knowing full well that there was several thousand dollars up saying he would win. But Jimmie was not at his best and he allowed Rensselaer Wilkes, a bay horse of the numerous Wilkes family, to beat him, and Rennselaer was not even a choice for a place. In the :18 pace came one of the saddest disitments of the day-to those who backed Alleen, and they are legion. Alleen was evidently indisposed, for she finished ifth in the first heat and allowed herself to be distanced in the second. Sir Edwir Arnold, a choice for second place, wor three straight heats, after the first, which was won by Prairie Lillie. In the first heat of the 2:22 trot the favorite was igain beaten. Pat L. at first sold as favorite at even money, but he acted badly finished fifth. Then he settled and managed to win the race without much lifficulty. Rennselaer Wilkes lowered his ecord in the first heat of the 2:19 trot from 2:151/4 to 2:123/4. In several of the heats time better than 2:10 would have een made had the winning horse crowded. It was a strange thing, but each winner of a beat finished a length or more head of the field and the hardest-fought contests were for second places.

THE 2:19 TROT.

When the ten races for the first race of the afternoon were called an impatient crowd pushed around the betting stands trying to get up their money, and enough noney was placed on Jimmie Hague to buy him outright. Notwithstanding the number of starters they got off without the horse, in the At the first quarter Margaret C. pushed ahead and Jimmie Hague lost all of his horse sense by going up and breaking badly. On the back stretch Rennselaer Wilkes assed Margaret C. Jimmie Hague passed the field in pursuit of Rennselaer, but the atter come down the stretch lengths ahead of Jimmie Hague, who was second, with Kitchel's Red Wilkes third, and the others bringing up the rear Jimmie Hague looked weary as he passed under the wire and the fickle crowd deserted him in favor of Rensselaer. In the second heat Rennselaer was the favorite, but a few who knew the history Jimmie Hague still showed con n his ability to win. Red Wilkes started forth as if he was the only horse on the track and he kept the lead until the quarter, when Jimmie Hague moved forward and then Rensselaer Wilkes started after Red Wilkes. The latter fell back and Rennselaer and Jimmie trotted side by until the finish, when Rennselaer showed his good Hoosier blood by leaving Himmie behind and winning by several lengths. Jimmie Hague broke in the stretch and it was by a scratch that he was brought to his feet in time to win secon! place. Kitchel's Red Wilkes was third. A look at the pool boards before the third heat showed that the friends of Jimmie Hague had deserted him. Rennselaer was a strong favorite and he won the heat as he pleased, not being passed. Lee Simmons was second, several lengths behind, Glenmore third and Jimmie Hague, the shattered idol, seventh. Rennselaer Wilkes won first money, Jimmie Hague sec-ond, Lee Simmons third and Kitchel's Red Wilkes fourth. Following is the summary: 2:19 Trot; Purse, $600: Rensselaer Wilkes, b. h., by Alcantra Wilkes (Kitchel)...... 3 Glenmore, b. h., by Sir Havoc (Sweet).5 4

AILEEN WAS FICKLE. In the betting in the 2:18 pace Atleen was the favorite, and nine out of every ten horsemen said she was sure to win. The manner in which the fraternity purchased Aileen pools impressed one that they were as secure as gold bonds. Prairie Lillie sold at 6 to 2, and she was not seriously considered as a possible winner. The starters got off with no difficulty. Prairie Lillie went to the front and led to the quarter. Alleen was second, but not steady, and, seeing this, the horsemen said: "Just wait until the stretch, and she'll show 'em." At the stretch, however, Aileen was in a worse fix than she was at the quarter. Looking down the stretch the backers of the little daughter of Gazette were horrified to see the black and blue cap of driver Shockney in a bunch at the rear, hopelessly out of the race. Allie Wilkes followed Prairie Lilie a distance down the stretch, but the Lillie pulled away and finished five lengths ahead. Looking back, driver Boyce saw there was danger of two or three horses being distanced, so he pulled in, winning the heat in 2:12%, which could have been won in 2:10 as well. Allie Wilkes was second, Sir Edwin Arnold third, Eximus ourth, Aileen fifth and Pat Murphy sixth. Again the crowd turned, and a rush was made by those who had lost on Aileen, who desired to square matters by winni who desired to square matters by winning on Prairie Lillie. The latter was the favorite, Sir Edwin Arnold being a choice for place. Prairie Lillie started forth to win, and she led to the back stretch with the others bunched pretty well behind. At the last turn Sir Edwin moved ahead most beautifully, winning with ease. Prairie Lillie was second, and she came in as if completely worn out. Aileen failed to get in before the flag fell, and the second favorite of the day had trifled with friends. The feature of this heat was the spurt which

Pat Murphy, the black gelding belonging to T. S. Graves, of this city, made at the finish, coming within a neck of beating Prairie Lillie for second place. Sir Edwin Arnold had things all his own way in the third and fourth heats, which were pretty much the same. In each Sir Edwin and Prairie went most of the distance neck and neck, until the stretch. when Sir Edwin pulled away, winning each Sir Edwin won first money, Prairie Lillie second, Pat Murphy third and Eximus fourth. Allie Wilkes's bad showing was due to sickness, as after the second heat it was necessary to withdraw her from the race. The summary is as follows:

2:18 Pace; Purse, $1,500: Sir Edwin Arnold, s. s., by Captain Cook (Burnett)...... 3 1 1 1 Prairie Lillie, b. m., by Adrian Wilkes (Boyce)..... Pat Murphy, b. g., by Palmetto (Graves) Eximus, b. h., by The King (Gatt-Allie Wilkes, b. s., by Petoskey Time—2:12½, 2:10½, 2:13¾, 2:17.

THE 2:22 TROT. Pat L. was the favorite, with Don L. a good second, in the third event. It was conceded that it was Pat L's race. But after the start had been made Pat lost his feet; and he went a full quarter before he could be brought to his gait. Don L. took the lead, and kept it to the finish. His driver, Hills, looked back while coming down the stretch, and he saw a bunch of horses, all in danger of being shut out, and in not a bit of danger of winning. Don L. was slowed, and all eyes turned to see the finish for second place between Rannie S. and Norvardine. They came as a team, going a steady gait. Norvardine barely won, with Fannie S. second, Meda third, and Pat L., the favorite, a very bad fifth Rememering what a disastrous day it had been for favorites, Pat. L. was forsaken, and the money piled up on Don L., with Norvardine a second choice. Those who knew Pat L., however, remained true to him, and he did not disappoint his friends, as other favorites had been known to do. Meda showed wonderful speed, and moved forward. Pat L. went steadily, as ashamed of his former performance and determined to make amends. Don L. was unsteady, although he led until the back stretch, where he broke, Pat L. went ahead, with Meda second and Don L. by her side. Pat L. came home winner, with Meda second, Don L. third, Catherine fourth and Norvardine fifth. After this heat the betting went back to what it was efore the first one, with Pat L. the favor-

Meda acted simply dreadful in the third neat. She seemed to think she had done all that could be expected of one horse in an afternoon, and because of her actions it was a long time before a start. Don L. led until he broke, when Pat L. steadily Norvardine behaved well and on the stretch she was pushing Pat L, and Don L. The latter broke again, and Pat L. finished first, with Norvardine second, Don Pat L. was conceded to be the winner of the race before the fourth heat started. Don L. dropped from public notice as a second choice in favor of Norvardine. Don L egan by showing his speed, which is wonderful, and, after leading to the back stretch, he broke as he did before. Pat L. ook the lead, but Don soon gained his feet and Pat and Don moved away from crowd, winning, with several lengths beween them and several lengths ahead of he others. Pat L. won first money: Don second; Norvardine, third, and Fannie .. fourth. Here is the summary: 2:22 Trot; Purse, $1,000:

The 2:50 trot, the 2:25 pace and the 2:27 pace are on the programme for this afternoon's races. There are seventeen entries in the first event, twenty-three in the secand fourteen in the third. In each race are entered horses which have made sensational time this season. Never has such a scene been witnessed in this city as that last evening around the betting booths at the Grand Hotel. Excitement ran high and men pushed and costelate one another to get to the front. The pools sold fively and thousands of dollars were staked or the resuts of to-day's events. The crowd was principally composed of men who are acquainted with the horses entered and know something of what may be expected of them. In the 2:50 trot, Wiggins, a bay colt by Aberdeen, owned by Douglas Thomas, of Paris, Ky., sold at $10 to the field $7. The field was liberally backen, but there seemed to be no end of Wiggins money. Earlmont, a most promising bay horse, by Belmont, owned by Mr. Thomas, was the favorite, with Antidote, a bay stallion, by Anteros, owned by Ayer & Betzner, of Peru, a good second. In this race no horse was backed so strong as favorite as in the other two races, for there seemed to be a feeling that it would be an undertain contest. In the 2:27 trot, Periwinkle, a bay mare by Prince de Leon, owned by McAdams & Bros., of Lewisburg, Tenn., sold as favor ite at $10 to the field $4. One of the sadlest sights about the hotel was hat of nan who carried in his hand a bunch of Jimmy Hague tickets, a disappointing fa-vorite in yesterday's races, for which he

Changes in Programme.

The managers of the meeting have decided upon a change in the programme, which was announced from the judges stand yesterday afternoon. The 2:40 trot. down on the programme for Thursday, has been postponed and made the first race for Saturday, and the 2:21 pace down for Sat urday, will be the first event of Thursday afternoon. As the programme was first announced three pacing races were to be given upon Saturday and in each there is a long list of entries. The entries for Thursday are not so numerous, and the change in the programme will equalize matters and make the programme for both Thursday and Saturday more interesting.

Cars to the Fair Grounds. For the remainder of the week cars will run to the fair grounds every ten minutes on the Central-avenue line, during the afternoon every fifte n minutes on the Col-lege-avenue and every twenty minutes on the Illinois-street line.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

El Rami, Bright Regent and Iron Bar Won-Attendance Small. BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 13,-The remarkable feature about to-day's racing at the Grand C'rcuit meet was that three favorites won. The sport was comparatively tame and the crowd correspondingly small. In order to stimulate the attendance during the remainder of the meeting, a special race between Azote and Fantasy has been scheduled for to-morrow. Corbett is to appear Thursday and Fitzsimmons Friday, if he will consent. The Hamlins threaten, if the attendance does not improve, to abandon the meeting next year or until betting is permitted again in this State. El Rami went out three times in the 2:30 trot, and was never headed. Bright Regent had qu'te an easy victory in the pace, as Jo-He was the only one to make it interesting for him, and he was wretchedly driven in the first and second heats, finishing weak. For the third heat Dick Curtis was put behind him, and finished on Regent's wheel, thereby getting part of the money. Iron Bar had a dangerous field to contend against in the last race, and it is greatly to his credit that he won out under the ircumstances. His victory marks him as one of the best prize-winners of the circuit thus far. Summarles: 2:30 trot; purse, $2,000:

Patchen Goes to Milwankee.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 13 .- Joe Patchen will be shipped to Milwaukee to go an exnibition mile for a purse of $1,500. Colone. Taylor wanted a match race between Joe Patchen, John R. Gentry and Robert J. for $5,000 a side, the distance flag to be moved within fifty yards of the finish. This he failed to get, because after Robert J. had been beaten by Joe Patchen last Thursday the Hamlins refused to set him up a second time. Instead, they offered $2,000 for the race between Gentry and Patchen, leaving Robert J. out, but Colonel laylor would not consent, alleging that his stallion would be at a disadvantage, as he had just had a bruising race, while Gentry was fresh. Gentry, Patchen and Robert J. will meet at Fleetwood Park the last week in August, and not before then.

NEW MINING FIELD.

Rich Ore Found on One of the Islands of the Aleutian Archipelago.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.-The schoon or Golden Gate, which has been on a prospecting cruise among the islands of the Aleutian archipelago, returned last evening with a tale of wonderful mines where rich ore is to be cut out with a cheese knife. The Golden Gate sailed from San Franrisco on the 26th of July with a party of young men who had agreed to share expenses and profits on the Alaskan mining expedition. Three of the party of twelve or nore returned with the schooner, but they tre full of buoyant hopes and after ore prought down in the hold of the vessel is assayed, will return to the islands with some machinery. The men who came down from the north on the Golden Gate say ittle about the location of their big strike, out it was learned on board the schooner that the mine on which they place most reliance is on one of the islands just south of Kodiak island. The ore is rich enough o warrant the expenditure necessary to properly mill it.

EXPLOSION OF $200 WORTH OF FIRE-WORKS AT THORNTOWN.

Wife of Editor Hamilton and Benjamin Mullen, of Frankfort, Seriously Hurt-State News.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. THORNTOWN, Ind., Aug. 13 .- The streets were thronged with people to-night who had come to town to attend the old settlers' meeting to-day, and stayed to witness a display of fireworks, the like of which had never before been set off in this place. Just seven minutes after commencing the display the entire supply caught fire, and a series of fearful explosions followed. In two minutes two hundred dollars' worth of fireworks was burned. The rockets shot into the crowd and caused a serious panic. The wife of G. H. Hamilton, editor of the Thorntown Argus, was struck by a skyrocket, or several of them, riddling her clothing and severely wounding her in the leg. Benjamin Mullen, of Frankfort, was struck over the left eye and dangerously injured. Others received small injuries and burns from the flying missiles, but were not More than 10,000 More than 10,000 people attended the annual reunion of the old settlers of Boone, Clinton and Montgomery counties. The beautiful natural park at Sugar Plain, two miles west of this city, was filled with the old settlers and their descendants, some groups showing four generations of one family. A great attendance was ex-pected, but the largest estimate fell short the actual numbers. Gen. Lew Wallace, who was expected to make the address of the day, was unable to fulfill his ap-pointment, he being too ill to endure the fatigue of speaking in the open air. Many old soldiers were in attendance and great was their disappointment when it became known that their beloved commander could

Suicide of Amos Bortsfield. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 13.-This morning about 4 o'clock, Amos Bortsfield, of Corder, Ind., shot and killed himself in a straw shed on the farm of his brother, W. R. Bortsfield. The bullet pierced his body beow the ribs and came out in the back. Bortsfield fell and lay in a pool of blood. His shirt caught fire and had not his brother seen him and rescued him he would have been tortured, for the flames were communicating to the straw when he was d'scovered. In letters which he left to his nearest relatives Bortsfield gave his reason for committing suicide that ne was poor and too old to live. In a pocket $876 was found. He was fifty-six years old and leaves a wife and one son.

Southern Indiana Veterans. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ELNORA, Ind., Aug. 13.-The fifth annua reunion of the Veteran Association of Southern Indiana opened here this morning. The day was ushered in with firing of artillery. A large number of old soldiers arrived yesterday and last night and the camp was well filled. It has been christened "Camp Walker," in honor of Col. I. N. Walker, the next commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., according to the outlook now. To-day was K. of P. day. erans. $15,000 Elevator Fire. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FOWLER, Ind., Aug. 13 .- At 6:20 o'clock to-night the largest elevator in Benton county, situated at this place and owned by O. Bernard & Son, was burned, together with a large amount of grain. The loss will exceed $15,000, with $5,500 insurance; $1,000 on grain and $4,500 on building. Large numbers of farmers had nauled oats to this firm, but had stored them, thus they will be losers. The greater loss comes from the fact that just now oats were coming into market in large quantities. Fire was occasioned by an overheated oil box in the very top of the elevator and water could not be carried to the place.

Al Norris, of Elwood, an expert butcher will enter a contest with an unknown butcher of Chicago for a purse of $25, to see who can dress a beef in the best time. There are thirty-five cases of typhoid fever at Richmond, but no deaths have occurred. The trouble is alleged to be due to impure water used by the dairymen for their cattle.

Joshua Spurlin, of Shelbyville, an account of whose disappearance from his home appeared in the Journal two months ago, returned to Shelbyville yesterday. He went as far as Missouri.

The Elwood Homing Society sent fifty-six birds to Pittsburg Monday morning, and the same number yesterday and last evening the birds were co rapidly. There were a number of young birds in the lots sent and they made fair time. The society will keep this up for a week, when the birds will be given a rest for a few days and then be started again.

Indians on a Raiding Expedition. MERIDA, Yucatan, Aug. 13.—Five hundred Indians belonging to savage tribes on the border of the British colony of Belize have appeared on Mexican soil, all armed with Remington rifles and with abundant ammunition purchased from Brit-ish colonists. This fact arouses the great-est indignation, for the savages intend raiding remote plantations, and, being we armed, it will require a large number troops to subdue them. Cubans and S lards here are having daily fights in the notels and streets.
